Cabela's, Inc.,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Kelora Systems, LLC,
Defendant.

Nebraska Furniture Mart, Inc.,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Kelora Systems, LLC,
Defendant.

eBay, Inc. and Microsoft Corporation, Plaintiffs,
vs.
Kelora Systems, LLC,
Defendant.

The parties herein Kelora Systems, LLC (“Kelora”) and eBay, Inc., Microsoft Corporation, Nebraska Furniture Mart, Inc., Cabela’s Inc., Target Corporation, OfficeMax Incorporated, Rockler Companies, Inc., 1-800-Flowers.com, Inc., Amazon.com, Inc., Dell, Inc., Office Depot, Inc., Newegg Inc., Costco Wholesale Corporation, Hewlett-Packard Company, CircuitCity.com Inc., Audible, Inc., and Zappos.com, Inc. (collectively, “Alleged Infringers”) have stipulated that certain information subject to discovery in this action may be claimed to be or contain a trade secret or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, or strategic information. Unable to reach agreement on all protective provisions, the parties filed a letter brief to the Court on August 11, 2011. ECF No. 330. In response, the Court issued its Order Re Discovery Letter Re Protective Order, ECF No. 348, on August 29, 2011. Kelora will seek relief from Magistrate Judge Beeler’s rulings regarding patent prosecution bar provisions in the Order Re Discovery Letter Re Protective Order, ECF No. 348, by a motion to be filed on the date hereof. Subject to Judge Wilken’s ruling on that motion by Kelora, in the interest of permitting discovery to proceed without delay, the parties stipulate to provide access to and to accept such information subject to the protective provisions hereinafter set forth. In view of these stipulations, the Court finds that good cause exists for issuance of a protective order. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and consistent with the Court’s Order Re Discovery Letter Re Protective Order, ECF No. 348, the Court hereby enters the following Protective Order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Scope. This Protective Order shall apply to all information, documents, testimony, and/or things subject to discovery in this action (“Discovery Material”) which contains proprietary, confidential, and/or commercially sensitive information and/or trade secrets, as well as pleadings, written discovery requests and responses, testimony and other information, documents, and/or things containing, reporting, or reflecting such information. As used herein, “Producing Party” shall refer to any party, including the parties to this action and non-parties, who discloses, makes available for inspection, and/or produces any Discovery Material in this action. “Receiving Party” shall refer to the party to this action who receives Discovery Material from a Producing Party. “Protected Material” means any Discovery Material that is designated as provided for in this Protective Order, as well as any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel in Court or in other settings that might reveal such information.

2. Designation. Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as set forth herein as (a) CONFIDENTIAL subject to this Protective Order if it contains trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information within the scope of Rule 26(c)(1)(g); (b) CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY subject to this Protective Order if it contains particularly sensitive confidential information as defined below in Paragraph 5; and/or (c) RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE if it contains confidential, proprietary and/or trade secret source code or technical design documentation.

3. Limits On Use Of Discovery Material. In the absence of written permission from the Producing Party, Discovery Material designated CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE:

a) Shall be protected from disclosure as specified herein, unless the Producing Party consents to disclosure in writing, or unless a party obtains an Order of the Court declaring that all or certain Portions of such Discovery Material are not, in fact, protected or should be subject to an alternative designation; and

b) Shall be used only for purposes of this litigation for the preparation, trial, and appeal of this lawsuit; settlement discussions and negotiations pertaining to this lawsuit; any form of alternative dispute resolution of this lawsuit; or for any of the previous purposes for any lawsuit ordered by a court to be related to this lawsuit; and for no other purpose or publication whatsoever, whether directly or indirectly.

4. Manner Of Designation. The Producing Party may designate documents or other tangible Discovery Materials by placing the following legend or similar legend on the document or thing: “CONFIDENTIAL,” “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” and/or “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE.”

1 a) Written Discovery Information may be designated by placing the following 2 legend on every page of the written material subject to protection prior to production:
3 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” and/or 4 “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE.”

5 b) In the event that original documents are produced for inspection, no 6 marking need be made by the Producing Party in advance of the inspection. For the 7 purposes of the inspection, all documents so produced shall be considered as marked 8 “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Thereafter, upon selection of 9 specified documents for copying by the Receiving Party, the Producing Party shall mark
10 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” and/or 11 “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE” as appropriate, on the copies of 12 such documents at the time the copies are produced to the Receiving Party.

13 c) Parties or testifying persons may designate depositions and other testimony 14 as CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, and/or 15 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE by indicating on the record at the 16 time the testimony is given or by sending written notice that the testimony is designated 17 within thirty (30) days of receipt of the final transcript of the testimony. All information 18 disclosed during a deposition shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES 19 ONLY until the time within which it may be designated as CONFIDENTIAL, 20 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED 21 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE has passed. The witness, counsel for the witness, and 22 counsel for any party shall have the right to exclude from oral depositions, other than the 23 deponent and counsel for the deponent, any person who is not authorized by this 24 Stipulation and Protective Order to receive documents or information designated as 25 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, and/or 26 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE. Such right of exclusion is applicable 27 during periods of examination or testimony directed to CONFIDENTIAL, 28

CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED
CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE information.

5. Persons Who May Access Designated Discovery Material.

a) Co-Defendant Information. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, absent the express written consent of the Producing Party, no representative or employee (including in house counsel and paralegals) of an Alleged Infringer shall have access to the CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material of any other Alleged Infringer.

b) Confidential Discovery Material. The parties agree that any Discovery Material that contains trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information within the scope of Rule 26(c)(1)(g) may qualify for the CONFIDENTIAL designation. Subject to the provisions set forth in Paragraph 18, Discovery Material designated as CONFIDENTIAL may be disclosed only to:

i) Two (2) representatives of the Receiving Party;

ii) The outside attorneys working on this action on behalf of any party and paralegals of such outside attorneys and any copy or other clerical litigation support services personnel employed by such outside attorneys. As used herein, "outside attorneys" shall mean attorneys for the respective firms who have appearances entered in this case;

iii) Two (2) in-house counsel of each Receiving Party who are responsible for this action and two paralegals of such Receiving Party;

iv) Any person or entity that is not a party to this action and who is not employed by a party who is expressly retained by any outside attorney described in Paragraph 5(b)(ii) to assist in preparation of this action for trial as a consultant or testifying expert, with disclosure only to the extent necessary to perform such work; provided, however, that such person has signed the undertaking annexed hereto as Exhibit A agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order, and provided that no unresolved objections to such disclosure exist after proper notice has been given to all parties as set forth in Paragraph 6, below;

v) Court reporters, stenographers and videographers retained to record testimony taken in this action;

vi) The Court, its technical advisor (if one is appointed), jury, and court personnel;

vii) Copy, electronic discovery, graphics, translation, design, clerical litigation support, and/or trial consulting services including mock jurors, retained by a Party; viii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party.

c) Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only Discovery Material. The parties agree that at least Discovery Material in one or more of the following categories may qualify for the CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY designation: (i) non-public technical information, including schematic diagrams, manufacturing and engineering drawings, engineering notebooks, internal technical communications, specifications, research notes and materials, technical reference materials, and other non-public technical descriptions and/or depictions of the relevant technology; (ii) non-public damages-related information (e.g., the number of products sold, total dollar volume of sales products); (iii) non-public financial information; (iv) customer lists; (v) business and/or marketing plans or analyses; and (vi) price lists and/or pricing information. Subject to the provisions set forth in Paragraph 18, Discovery Material designated as CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS EYES' ONLY may be disclosed only to:

i) The outside attorneys working on this action on behalf of any party and paralegals of such outside attorneys and any copy or other clerical litigation support services personnel employed by any of such outside attorneys. As used herein, "outside attorneys" shall mean attorneys for the respective firms who have appearances entered in this case;

ii) Two (2) in-house counsel of each Receiving Party who are responsible for this action and two (2) paralegals of such Receiving Party;

iii) Any person or entity that is not a party to this action and that is not employed by a party who is expressly retained by any outside attorney described in Paragraph 5(c)(i) to assist in preparation of this action for trial as a consultant or testifying expert, with disclosure only to the extent necessary to perform such work; provided, however, that such person has signed the undertaking annexed hereto as Exhibit A agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order, and provided that no unresolved objections to such disclosure exist after proper notice has been given to all parties as set forth in Paragraph 5(b), below;

iv) Court reporters, stenographers, and videographers retained to record testimony taken in this action;

v) The Court, its technical advisor (if one is appointed), jury, and court personnel;

vi) Copy, graphics, translation, design, clerical litigation support, and/or trial consulting services (excluding mock jurors) retained by a Party;

vii) Any other person with the prior written consent of the Producing Party.

d) Information Designated RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE. Native source code shall be produced in native format as it is organized and kept in the ordinary course of business. All source code produced shall be deemed “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE.” Documents or other things that are designated as confidential and contain a party’s source code may be designated “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE” and treated as such if they comprise or include confidential, proprietary and/or trade secret source code.

i) Any source code that is produced shall be made available for inspection in electronic format at the Producing Party’s option at (a) the San Francisco or Palo Alto, California offices of Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, (b) the

1 California offices of its outside counsel of record in this action, or (c) another 2 location mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

3 ii) The Receiving Party shall provide ten (10) days notice prior to 4 commencing an inspection. The Receiving Party shall restrict its inspection 5 requests to the business hours of the secure office.

6 iii) Subject to the other provisions of this Protective Order, the 7 Receiving Party may bring with it to the secure offices a cell phone and laptop 8 computer.

9 iv) Source code will be made available by the Producing Party to the 10 Receiving Party's outside counsel and/or experts in a private room at the secure 11 office on a secured computer, without Internet access or network access to other 12 computers ("Source Code Computer"), as necessary and appropriate to prevent and 13 protect against any unauthorized copying, transmission, removal or other transfer 14 of any source code outside or away from the computer on which the source code is 15 provided for inspection. The Producing Party shall be obligated to install such 16 tools or programs necessary to review and search the code produced on the 17 platform produced. The Receiving Party's outside counsel and/or expert shall be 18 entitled to take notes relating to the source code but may not copy substantial 19 portions of the source code into the notes. For purposes of this provision, fifteen 20 or more lines of code is "substantial." No copies of all or any portion of the source 21 code may leave the room in which the source code is inspected except as otherwise 22 provided herein. Further, no other written or electronic record of the source code 23 is permitted except as otherwise provided herein.

24 v) The Receiving Party may request paper copies of limited portions 25 of source code that are reasonably necessary for the preparation of court filings, 26 pleadings, expert reports, or other papers, or for deposition or trial, but shall not 27 request paper copies for the purpose of reviewing the source code other than 28 electronically in the first instance. Upon reasonable request, the Producing Party

1 shall produce to the Receiving Party printed copies of requested files contained on 2 the Producing Party's Source Code Computer under the following terms and 3 conditions:

4 a. A request for printed copies of files shall include, on a file-5 by-file basis, the complete file path associated with each file. If additional 6 information is required to uniquely identify the requested files, then the 7 request shall include, on a file-by-file basis, such additional information.

8 b. A party may request multiple versions or revisions of the 9 same file, but the requesting party must specify the exact dates or the exact 10 numbers for each version or versions sought. The Producing Party and the 11 Receiving Party shall cooperate in identifying the precise files which are 12 sought.

13 c. Any printed copy of a Source Code file shall be marked and 14 designated as "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE," must 15 be maintained in the private inspection rooms identified in Paragraph 16 5(d)(v), and shall be disclosed and disseminated only to the individuals 17 identified in Paragraph 5(c). The Producing Party shall clearly identify the 18 file path of the underlying file as well as an additional information required 19 to uniquely identify the underlying file on any printed copy of a Source 20 Code file.

21 d. The Producing Party shall have three (3) business days in 22 which to object in writing as to the extent or relevance of the requested 23 printout(s). If no such objection is made, the Producing Party shall 24 produce a copy of the printout(s) to the Reviewing Party pursuant to the 25 terms of Paragraph 5(c). If objection is made, the parties shall meet and 26 confer within three (3) business days in a good faith attempt to resolve the 27 objection. If the objection is not resolved, the Producing Party shall have 28 five (5) business days after the expiration of the meet and confer period

1 (i.e., eight (8) business days from the date of the request) in which to file a 2 motion for relief from production of the printout(s) that are the subject of 3 the objection. The printout(s) shall be retained by the Producing Party, and 4 not produced, pending the Court's resolution of the motion.

5 vi) A list of names of persons who will view the source code will be 6 provided to the Producing Party in conjunction with any written (including email) 7 notice requesting inspection. The Producing Party shall be entitled to have a 8 person observe all entrances and exits from the source code viewing room. The 9 Producing Party may also visually monitor the activities of the Receiving Party's 10 representatives during any source code review, but only to ensure that there is no 11 unauthorized recording, copying, or transmission of the source code.

12 vii) Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in writing, 13 following each inspection, the Receiving Party's outside counsel and/or experts 14 shall remove all notes, documents, laptops, and all other materials from the room 15 that may contain work product and/or attorney-client privileged information. The 16 Producing Party shall not be responsible for any items left in the room following 17 each inspection session.

18 viii) The Receiving Party shall maintain and store any paper copies of 19 the source code at the offices of its outside counsel or experts, in a manner that 20 prevents duplication of or unauthorized access to the source code, including, 21 without limitation, storing the source code in a locked room or cabinet at all times 22 when it is not in use.

23 ix) The Receiving Party may include excerpts of source code in a 24 pleading, exhibit, expert report, discovery document, deposition transcript, other 25 Court document, or any drafts of these documents ("Source Code Documents").
26 The Receiving Party shall only include such excerpts as are reasonably necessary 27 for the purposes for which such part of the source code is used.
28

1 x) To the extent portions of source code are quoted in a Source Code 2 Document, either (1) the entire document will be stamped and treated as 3 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE or (2) those pages containing 4 quoted source code will be separately bound, and stamped and treated as 5 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE.

6 xi) The Receiving Party's outside counsel of record may make no more 7 than five (5) additional paper copies of any portions of the printed source code, not 8 including copies attached to court filings. All paper copies shall be securely 9 destroyed if they are no longer in use (e.g., unmarked and/or spare copies at the 10 conclusion of a deposition). Copies of source code that are marked as deposition 11 exhibits shall not be provided to the Court Reporter or attached to deposition 12 transcripts; rather, the deposition record will identify the exhibit by its production 13 numbers.

14 xii) Except as provided in this Protective Order, the Receiving Party 15 may not create electronic images, or any other images, of the source code from the 16 paper copy for use on a computer (e.g., may not scan the source code to a PDF, or 17 photograph the code). The Receiving Party may create an electronic copy or 18 image of selected portions of the source code only when reasonably necessary to 19 accomplish any filing with the Court or to serve any pleadings or other papers on 20 any other party; or to prepare other necessary case materials such as testifying 21 expert reports, consulting expert written analyses, and related drafts and 22 correspondences. Images or copies of source code shall not be included in 23 correspondence between the parties (references to production numbers and source 24 code page and line numbers shall be used instead) and shall be omitted from 25 pleadings and other papers except to the extent permitted herein. To the extent any 26 electronic images of any portion of source code are permitted under this Protective 27 Order, such electronic images must be encrypted using commercially reasonable 28 encryption software including password protection; pleadings, briefs, and other

1 work product containing excerpts of source code need not be encrypted. The 2 communication and/or disclosure of electronic files containing any portion of 3 source code shall at all times be limited to individuals who are authorized to see 4 source code under the provisions of this Protective Order. All electronic copies 5 must be labeled "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE."

6 xiii) The Receiving Party shall maintain a log of any individual who has 7 inspected any portion of the source code in electronic or paper form. The log shall 8 include the dates and times of any access, all printed or electronic copies of the 9 source code that are delivered by the Receiving Party to any qualified person and 10 the names of the recipients of copies and locations where the copies are stored.
11 The log shall be provided by the Receiving Party to the Producing Party upon 12 request.

13 xiv) Only United States citizens or permanent residents falling within 14 the following categories shall have access to "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-15 SOURCE CODE" materials, absent the express written consent of the Producing 16 Party or further court order:

17 a. Outside litigation counsel of record as of the date of this 18 Protective Order, including any attorneys, paralegals, technology 19 specialists and clerical employees of their respective law firms. The parties 20 reserve the right to object to additional counsel that appear on behalf of a 21 party. To the extent that a party raises an objection to an additional 22 counsel, such counsel may be prohibited from accessing RESTRICTED 23 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE documents for a period no longer than 24 five (5) business days and the parties agree to negotiate his or her access to 25 "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE" materials in good 26 faith. If the objecting party files a motion for protective order, after a good 27 faith meet and confer, the ban on the access to RESTRICTED 28 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE documents shall extend until the

1 motion is decided. The motion shall be briefed on an expedited basis 2 where responsive briefs are due five (5) business days after the moving 3 brief is filed.

4 b. Up to three (3) outside experts or consultants per party, pre-5 approved in accordance with Paragraph 5(c), and specifically identified as 6 eligible to access Source Code. The parties agree to negotiate disclosure of 7 “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE” materials to 8 additional outside experts in good faith and upon a showing of good cause;

9 c. The Court, its technical advisor (if one is appointed), the 10 jury, court personnel, and court reporters or videographers recording 11 testimony or other proceedings in this action;

12 d. While testifying at deposition or trial in this action only: (i) 13 any current or former officer, director or employee of the Producing Party 14 or original source of the information; (ii) any person designated by the 15 Producing Party to provide testimony pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) of the 16 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and/or (iii) any person who authored, 17 previously received, or was directly involved in creating, modifying, or 18 editing the source code, as evident from its face or reasonably certain in 19 view of other testimony or evidence. Persons authorized to view Source 20 Code pursuant to this sub-paragraph shall not retain or be given copies of 21 the Source Code except while so testifying.

22 6. Provision Of Confidential Discovery Material To Authorized Individuals.

23 Other than with respect to Authorized Individuals set forth in Paragraph 5(b)(ii), 5(b)(v), 5(b)(vi), 24 5(c)(i), 5(c)(iv), 5(c)(v), 5(d)(xv)(a), and 5(d)(xv)(c), each person given access to 25 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED
 26 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE information shall be advised by the appropriate Receiving 27 Party that the information is being disclosed pursuant and subject to this Stipulation and 28 Protective Order. All persons receiving CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’

1 EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material are 2 enjoined from disclosing it to any person, except in conformance with this Protective Order.
3 Counsel for the Receiving Party shall notify the Producing Party within 24 hours of becoming 4 aware of any loss, theft or unauthorized copying and/or disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL,
5 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-
6 SOURCE CODE Discovery Material. Each individual who receives any CONFIDENTIAL,
7 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-
8 SOURCE CODE Discovery Material hereby agrees to be subject to the jurisdiction of this Court 9 for the purpose of any proceedings relating to the performance under, compliance with, or 10 violation of this Protective Order.

11 a) Counsel who makes CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' 12 EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery 13 Material available to persons set forth in Paragraph 5, above, shall be responsible for 14 limiting distribution thereof to those persons authorized under this Protective Order. All 15 copies of such Discovery Material disclosed shall be subject to the same restrictions 16 imposed herein on original materials. Any person having access to such Discovery 17 Material pursuant to Paragraph 5, whose participation in this litigation has been 18 terminated or otherwise concluded shall return all such Discovery Material as soon as 19 practicably possible thereafter to the Receiving Party's counsel of record, but in no event 20 longer than thirty (30) days after the termination or conclusion of the participation.

21 b) Before counsel for a Receiving Party may disclose any Discovery Material
22 designated CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or 23 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE to a person described in Paragraph 24 5(b)(iv), 5(c)(iii), and 5(d)(xv)(b), above of this Protective Order:

25 i) Counsel shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to such 26 person, who shall sign the undertaking annexed hereto as Exhibit A; and

27 ii) At least seven (7) business days before any such disclosure, counsel 28 for the Receiving Party shall notify the Producing Party in writing of the intent to

1 disclose CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, 2 and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material to 3 such person. The notice shall include a copy of the undertaking signed by the 4 person and shall identify his or her title, job responsibilities, and affiliation(s) with 5 the Receiving Party. The notice shall also include a copy of such person's most 6 recent curriculum vitae and an identification of all such person's present and for 7 the previous four years employment and/or consulting relationships related to the 8 field of computer guided searching.

9 c) If the Producing Party objects to the disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL,
10 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED
11 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material to such person, the Producing 12 Party shall notify counsel for the Receiving Party in writing of the Producing Party's 13 objection(s) to such disclosure prior to the date on which the disclosure is intended to be 14 made. Should the Receiving Party disagree with the basis for the objection(s), the parties 15 must first attempt to resolve the objection(s) informally. If the informal efforts do not 16 resolve the dispute within five (5) business days, the objecting Party may file a motion 17 requesting that the objection(s) be sustained. Pending a ruling by the Court upon any such 18 objection(s), the Discovery Material shall not be disclosed to the person objected to by the 19 Producing Party. If the objecting party fails to seek a protective order within that time, the 20 objection shall be deemed waived and the Discovery Material may be disclosed.

21 7. Use Of Discovery Material In Depositions. To the extent that any 22 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED
23 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material is used in the taking of a deposition, all 24 such Discovery Material shall remain subject to the provisions of this Protective Order, along 25 with the transcript pages of the deposition testimony dealing with the such Discovery Material. If
26 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED
27 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE Discovery Material is used in any deposition, the reporter 28 shall be informed of this Protective Order and shall be required to operate in a manner consistent

1 with this Protective Order. In the event the deposition is videotaped, the original and all copies of 2 the videotape shall be marked by the video technician to indicate that the contents of the 3 videotape are subject to this Protective Order, substantially as set forth below:

4 This videotape contains confidential testimony subject to Protective Order in 5 this Action and is not to be viewed or the contents thereof to be displayed or 6 revealed except in accord with such Protective Order, by order of the Court, 7 or pursuant to written stipulation of the parties.

8 8. Protection Of Third Parties. A party that seeks Discovery Material from a third 9 party shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to the third party upon request so that it may 10 take advantage of the protections afforded by this Protective Order.

11 9. Storage Of Discovery Material. The recipients of Discovery Material provided 12 under this Protective Order and all material that derives therefrom shall maintain such materials 13 in a safe and secure area, and reasonable precautions shall be taken with respect to the storage, 14 custody, use and/or dissemination of such materials. Any material that is derived from Discovery 15 Material protected hereunder, including copies, reproductions, summaries, or abstracts, shall be 16 subject to the terms of this Protective Order.

17 10. Filing Discovery Materials With The Court. If a document containing 18 CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED 19 CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE information is filed with the Court, it shall be filed under 20 seal.

21 11. Undertakings. Each person or entity set forth in Paragraphs 5(b)(i), 5(b)(iii), 22 5(b)(iv), 5(b)(vii), 5(b)(viii), 5(c)(ii), 5(c)(iii), 5(c)(vi), 5(c)(vii), and 5(d)(xv)(b) to whom 23 Protected Material is to be given, shown, disclosed, made available, or communicated in any way, 24 shall first execute the undertaking in the form shown in Exhibit A, agreeing to be bound by the 25 terms of this Protective Order and acknowledging that Protected Material is subject to this 26 Protective Order, the person is authorized under Paragraph 5 to receive Protected Material, the 27 person has read this Protective Order, such person agrees to comply with, and be bound by, this 28 Protective Order, and such person is aware that contempt sanctions may be entered for violation of this Protective Order. Counsel to whom Protected Material is produced shall keep in his or her

1 files the original of each such executed undertaking of Protective Order until sixty (60) calendar 2 days after the final termination of this action. Upon final termination of this action and at the 3 written request of the Producing Party, all such executed agreements shall be provided to outside 4 counsel for the Producing Party.

5 12. No Prejudice. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall be construed to 6 prejudice any party's right to use Protected Material at any hearing, trial, or appeal in this 7 litigation. In the event that any CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES 8 ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE information is used in any 9 court proceeding in this action or any appeal therefrom, such information shall not lose its 10 protection hereunder through such use. The confidentiality of such materials shall be protected as 11 determined and directed by the Court.

12 13. Public Or Independently Developed Information Not Protected. None of the 13 provisions of this Protective Order shall apply to the following categories of information, 14 documents and/or things, and any party may apply to remove the restrictions set forth herein on 15 Protected Material based upon a showing that such Protected Material had been:

- 16 a) available to the public at the time of its production hereunder;
- 17 b) available to the public after the time of its production through no 18 unauthorized act, or failure to act, on behalf of the Receiving Party, its counsel, 19 representatives, or experts;
- 20 c) known to the Receiving Party not because of an unauthorized disclosure by 21 one having obligations to maintain confidentiality, or shown to have been independently 22 developed by the Receiving Party, prior to its production herein or without use or benefit 23 of the information;
- 24 d) obtained outside of this action by the Receiving Party from the Producing 25 Party without having been designated as CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-26 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE 27 CODE, provided, however, that this provision does not negate any preexisting obligation 28 of confidentiality;

1 e) obtained by the Receiving Party after the time of disclosure hereunder from 2 a non-party having the right to disclose the same; or 3 f) previously produced, disclosed, and/or provided by the Producing Party to 4 the Receiving Party or a non-party without an obligation of confidentiality and not by 5 inadvertence or mistake.

6 14. Inadvertent Privileged Disclosure. The inadvertent production of Discovery 7 Material subject to the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product immunity, or other 8 applicable privilege or protection, will not automatically waive the privilege or protection. The 9 provisions of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5), as amended in 2010, shall apply to such 10 inadvertent production.

11 15. Failure To Designate. The inadvertent failure by a Producing Party to designate 12 Discovery Material as Protected Material shall not waive any such designation provided that the 13 Producing Party notifies all Receiving Parties that such Discovery Material is CONFIDENTIAL, 14 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-15 SOURCE CODE within ten (10) days from when the failure to designate first became known to 16 the Producing Party. A Receiving Party shall not be in breach of this Protective Order for any use 17 of such Discovery Material before the Receiving Party receives notice of the inadvertent failure to 18 designate. Once a Receiving Party has received notice of the inadvertent failure to designate 19 pursuant to this provision, the Receiving Party shall treat such Discovery Material at the 20 designated level pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order.

21 16. Unauthorized Disclosure. In the event of a disclosure of any Discovery Material
22 designated CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and/or 23 RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE to a person or persons not authorized to 24 receive such disclosure under this Protective Order, the party responsible for having made such 25 disclosure, and each party with knowledge thereof, shall immediately notify counsel for the 26 Producing Party and provide to such counsel all known relevant information concerning the 27 nature and circumstances of the disclosure. The responsible disclosing party shall also promptly 28 take all reasonable measures to retrieve the improperly disclosed Discovery Material and to 1 ensure that no further or greater unauthorized disclosure and/or use thereof is made.

2 Unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure does not change the status of Discovery Material or waive 3 the right to hold the disclosed document or information as Protected.

4 17. Disposition Of Materials After Litigation. Not later than sixty (60) days after 5 the final disposition of this litigation, (including after any appeals), by order of the Court, or for 6 good cause shown, each party shall return all CONFIDENTIAL and CONFIDENTIAL-7 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Discovery Material of a Producing Party to the respective outside 8 attorneys of the Producing Party and certify in writing that all such Discovery Material has been 9 returned. Alternatively, the Receiving Party may destroy such Discovery Material and certify in 10 writing that all such discovery material has been destroyed. The Parties receiving such Discovery 11 Material may keep their attorney work product, all court filings, discovery requests and 12 responses, correspondence, expert reports, trial and deposition transcripts, and exhibits to all of 13 the foregoing, which refer or relate to such Discovery Material. Attorney work product may be 14 used in subsequent litigation provided that such use does not disclose Discovery Material or any 15 information contained therein.

16 18. Disputes Regarding Designation. Any party may object in writing to any 17 designation of Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL, CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' 18 EYES ONLY, and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL-SOURCE CODE by specifying the 19 Discovery Material to which the objection is addressed and the grounds for the objection.
20 Thereafter, further protection of such material shall be resolved in accordance with the following 21 procedures:

22 a) The objecting party shall have the burden of conferring either in person, in 23 writing, or by telephone with the Producing Party claiming protection (as well as any 24 other interested party) in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. The Producing Party 25 shall have the burden of justifying the disputed designation;

26 b) Failing agreement, the objecting party may bring a motion to the Court for 27 a ruling that the Discovery Material in question is not entitled to the status and protection 28 of the Producing Party's designation.

c) Notwithstanding any challenge to a designation, the Discovery Material in question shall continue to be treated as designated under this Protective Order until one of the following occurs:

d) the party who designated the Discovery Material withdraws such designation in writing, or

e) the Court rules that the Discovery Material in question is not entitled to the designation.

19. Restriction On Assistance with Patent Applications. Absent written consent from the Producing Party, any individual who reviews “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” technical information or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” information shall not be involved in the prosecution of patents or patent applications relating to search engines, web search, or database or server search technology, including without limitation the patents asserted in this action and any patent or application claiming priority to or otherwise related to the patents asserted in this action, before any foreign or domestic agency, including the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“the Patent Office”). For purposes of this paragraph, “prosecution” includes directly or indirectly drafting, amending, advising, or otherwise affecting the scope or maintenance of patent claims. To avoid any doubt, “prosecution” as used in this paragraph does not include representing a party challenging a patent or challenging any proposed claims before a domestic or foreign agency (including, but not limited to, a reissue protest, ex parte reexamination or inter partes reexamination). This Prosecution Bar shall begin when “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” technical information or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” information is first reviewed by the affected individual and shall end two (2) years after final termination of this action.

20. Additional Protection. This Protective Order is entered without prejudice to the right of any party to seek further or additional protection of Discovery Material for which the protection of this Protective Order is not believed by such party to be adequate. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to bar or preclude any Producing Party from seeking such

1 additional protection, including, without limitation, an order that certain matter not be produced at 2 all.

3 21. Protection Of Producing Party. If at any time Discovery Material is subpoenaed 4 by any court, arbitral, administrative, or legislative body, the person to whom the subpoena or 5 other request is directed shall immediately give written notice thereof to counsel for every party 6 who has produced such Discovery Material and shall provide each such party with an opportunity 7 to object to the production of confidential materials. If a Producing Party does not move for a 8 protective order within ten (10) business days of the date written notice is given, the party to 9 whom the referenced subpoena is directed may produce such Discovery Material in response 10 thereto.

11 22. Discovery From Experts.

12 a) Discovery from experts is subject to the provisions of Federal Rule of Civil 13 Procedure 26(b)(4). Testifying experts shall not be subject to discovery on any draft of 14 his or her report in this case that was written by or for the testifying expert or his or her 15 staff and such draft reports, notes, or outlines for draft reports developed and drafted by or 16 for the testifying expert and/or his or her staff are also exempt from discovery.

17 b) Discovery of materials provided to testifying experts shall be limited to 18 those materials, facts, consulting expert opinions, and other matters actually relied upon 19 by the testifying expert in forming his/her final report, trial, or deposition testimony or any 20 opinion in this case. No discovery can be taken from any consulting expert except to the 21 extent that consulting expert has provided information, opinions, or other materials to a 22 testifying expert, who then relies upon such information, opinions, or other materials in 23 forming his final report, trial, or deposition testimony or any opinion in this case.

24 c) No conversations or communications between counsel and any testifying or 25 consulting expert will be subject to discovery unless the conversations or communications 26 are relied upon by such experts in formulating opinions that are presented in reports or 27 trial or deposition testimony in this case.
28

1 d) Materials, communications, and other information exempt from discovery 2 under the foregoing Paragraphs (a)-(c) shall be treated as attorney-work product for the 3 purposes of this litigation and Protective Order.

4 23. Limitations On Protective Order. Nothing in this Protective Order shall 5 preclude any party to this lawsuit or its attorneys from disclosing or using, in any manner or for 6 any purpose, its own Discovery Material. Notwithstanding any designation of Discovery 7 Material by a Producing Party under this Protective Order, any witness may be shown at a 8 deposition, trial, or evidentiary hearing, and examined on, any Discovery Material that the 9 witness authored or previously received. The witness may also be shown at a deposition, trial, or 10 evidentiary hearing, and examined on, any Discovery Material for which specific documentary or 11 testimonial evidence shows (i) that the Discovery Material was communicated to or from the 12 witness, or (ii) that the witness was involved in the specific matter(s) addressed in the Discovery 13 Material, or (iii) if the Producing Party of the Discovery Material agrees. Such witness must be 14 advised by counsel for the deposing party that his/her access to designated Discovery Material is 15 subject to the protections of this Protective Order and that he/she may not disclose such 16 designated Discovery Material or information contained therein to any persons not authorized 17 under this Protective Order to receive the same. Moreover, such witness may not retain any 18 copies of the discovery material disclosed or any notes relating thereto. Nothing in this Protective 19 Order shall be construed to prevent Counsel from advising their clients with respect to this 20 litigation based in whole or in part upon Protected Materials, provided Counsel does not disclose 21 the Protected Material itself except as provided in this Protective Order. In order to facilitate 22 settlement, nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to prevent Counsel from disclosing 23 to their clients summaries of Protected Materials that include financial information relevant to 24 damages

25 24. Survival Of Protective Order. The parties agree that the terms of this Protective 26 Order shall survive and remain in effect after the termination of the above-captioned matter.

27 25. Binding Effect. This Protective Order shall be binding upon the parties hereto, 28 their attorneys, and their successors, executors, personal representatives, administrators, heirs,

1 legal representatives, assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, retained consultants and 2 experts, and any persons or organizations over which they have direct control.

3 26. No Waiver. Execution of this Protective Order shall not constitute a waiver of the 4 right of any party to claim in this action or otherwise that any Discovery Material, or any portion 5 thereof, is privileged or otherwise non-discoverable, or is not admissible in evidence in this action 6 or any other proceeding.

7 27. Discovery Rules Remain Unchanged. Except as expressly stated herein, nothing 8 herein shall alter or change in any way the discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil 9 Procedure or any deadlines or procedures ordered by the Court for this litigation.

10 28. Effective as a Stipulation. This Stipulation and Protective Order shall become 11 effective as a stipulation between the parties immediately upon its execution, notwithstanding the 12 pendency of approval by the Court. If approval by the Court is ultimately withheld or made 13 conditional, no party shall treat any designated Discovery Material produced prior to that time 14 other than as provided in this Protective Order without giving the Producing Party sufficient 15 advance notice to allow for application to the Court for additional relief.

16 29. Burdens of Proof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, nothing in 17 this Protective Order shall be construed to change the burdens of proof or legal standards 18 applicable in disputes regarding whether particular Discovery Material is confidential, which 19 level of confidentiality is appropriate, whether disclosure should be restricted, and, if so, what 20 restrictions should apply.

21 30. Modification by the Court. This Protective Order is subject to further court order 22 based upon public policy or other considerations, and the Court may modify this Protective Order 23 sua sponte in the interests of justice. The United States District Court for the Northern District of 24 California is responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of this Protective Order. All

1 31. Post-complaint Documents. The parties agree that where a document production 2 request or other document production obligation reasonably may be interpreted to call for the 3 production of a document that (i) constitutes or reflects privileged attorney-client communications 4 between a party and its litigation counsel, is subject to a common-interest privilege relating to this 5 litigation, and/or constitutes attorney work product created in anticipation of this litigation and (ii) 6 was created on or after October 3, 2007 (the date PartsRiver filed its complaint against eBay and 7 Microsoft asserting infringement of the '821 patent), then the party responding to the request need 8 not list such documents on its privilege log and the privileged status of such document will not be 9 affected by omitting such documents from the responding party's privilege log.

EXHIBIT AUNDERTAKING TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

I, _____, acknowledge and declare that I have received a copy of the Protective Order (“Order”) in Kelora Systems, LLC v. Target Corporation et al., United States District Court, Northern District of California, Civil Action No. 4:11-cv-01548-CW; Cabela’s, Inc. v. Kelora Systems, LLC, United States District Court, Northern District of California, Civil Action No. 4:11-cv-01398-CW; Nebraska Furniture Mart, Inc. v. Kelora Systems, LLC, United States District Court, Northern District of California, Civil Action No. 4:11-cv-02284-CW; and eBay, Inc. and Microsoft Corporation v. Kelora Systems, LLC, United States District Court, Northern District of California, Civil Action No. 4:10-cv-04947-CW. Having read and understood the terms of the Order, I agree to be bound by the terms of the Order and consent to the jurisdiction of said Court for the purpose of any proceeding to enforce the terms of the Order.

I understand that the Discovery Material and my copies or notes relating thereto may only be disclosed to or discussed with those persons permitted by the Protective Order to receive such material.

I further certify that I do not have any engagements and/or consulting relationships with any of the Parties to this lawsuit or principals thereof or with any of the law firms or outside counsel involved in this lawsuit that have not been disclosed. I will return on request all materials containing Discovery Material, copies thereof, and notes that I have prepared relating thereto, to outside trial counsel for the party by whom or on whose behalf I am retained.

I hereby submit to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purpose of enforcement of the Protective Order and waive any and all objections to jurisdiction and venue. I make the above statements under penalty of perjury.
